Dear St. Robert's parishioners and friends,

To live a happy, meaningful life is to never ever grow tired of doing good;

To never ever quit forgiving;

To never ever stop sharing your blessings;
and...

To never ever cease loving, gratifying and praising God, who is the source of everything we have and who we are!

Be blessed and be a blessing,

Fr. Arnold

G.P.'s Music Corner

March 23, 2025

On this Sunday, we sing the beloved hymn "Here I am, Lord" by Dan Schutte. I selected it not only because of its particular place in the pantheon of Catholic hymns (which would ensure that most or all of the church will be proudly singing along), but also to emphasize the moment when Moses proclaimed "Here I am" when the Lord called for him. How many times does Jesus call to us in a day? What does He call us to do? Do we hear his voice? And when we do, do we have it in us to say, "Here I am, Lord?" Or do we turn away and turn into the fruitless fig tree, failing to provide the nourishment to others that was made possible by God's love for us?
