Easter 2025

Easter Sunday - April 20, 2025

7:30 am, 9:30 am, 11:30 am

(Easter Egg Hunt after the 9:30 am mass)

Dear St. Robert's parishioners and friends,

We are human.

We are alive but not perfect.

We try things, make mistakes, fail and stumble.

We rise, move on and try once more.

We keep on learning new things and keep growing.

We never give up and we are thankful for this priceless opportunity to do better every day.

We thank our Lord GOD for this day.

May this Easter bring us new opportunities to express GOD's love to others; renewed strength to face new challenges in our life.

Happy Easter!
Be blessed and be a blessing,

Fr. Arnold

We would like thank the following people who all helped in preparing these kids for Confirmation: Joanne Bartolotti, Leslie Fong, Neriann Miranda, Edgar Ceja, our catechists, Ed Ramirez, Jeff Co, and Travis Wingate.

Congratulations to all!

G.P.'s Music Corner

April 20, 2025 Triduum

What a journey! On Thursday, we washed each other's feet, accompanied by the beautiful song Healed in Christ. On Friday, we recalled O Sacred Head from our Palm Sunday liturgy, on Saturday, we exclaimed Alleluia! Love is Alive, and on this Sunday, we sing together the iconic I am the Bread of Life. I hope to hear everybody singing out the words, "And I will raise you up, and I will raise you up, and I WILL RAISE YOU UP ON THE LAST DAY!" Fun fact, composer Suzanne Toolan (of the Sisters of Mercy) wrote her song during a free period between two classes. She initially disliked what she wrote and actually tore the score apart and threw it in the wastebasket. A freshman who had heard the song asked her about it, commenting that it was beautiful. Because of this, she retrieved the torn pages, taped them together, and the rest is history. Talk about death and resurrection!

We continue to ask each week that parishioners pray for the chronically ill of our parish. If you have a friend or loved one in need of our prayers, please call the Rectory at 589-2800
