Dear St. Robert's parishioners and friends,

A little faith says: 'God may do it.'

A bigger faith says: "God can do it."

But a deep faith says whatever happens:

"God knows what's best."

Faith without works is like a bird without wings.

Though she may hop on earth, she will never fly to heaven.

Faith and Prayer are invisible but they make impossible things possible.

It's God part to do the wonders, ours is the simplest part, just trust and pray and believe.

Be blessed and be a blessing,

Fr. Arnold

MARY'S WIDOWS LUNCHEON

Join us on May 28th at 11:30 am at Red Robin located at 1274 El Camino Real, San Bruno . To RSVP, or for more information please call

Marilyn Dachauer at (650) 583-7633.

May is the month to honor Mother Mary. Fil-Am is hosting a "Flores de Mayo" celebration on Sunday, May 25, 2025. It will begin at 11:00 a.m. with a rosary procession at the front entrance of the church, through the parking lot, and into the church prior to the start of the 11:30 Mass. Parish organizations are invited to join and proudly display their banners. Children are encouraged to wear white to symbolize their innocence. Adults are encouraged to wear barongs or any festive attire. You are welcome to bring flowers to offer to our Blessed Mother.

Fourth Sunday of Easter

The King of Love My Shepherd Is by Henry Williams Baker bears one of my favorite melodies in the entire hymnary. It is based on an ancient Irish melody that somehow evokes both majesty and humility and is the perfect vehicle to carry the message of the hymn. When I hear it, I am transported into that space in my heart where all is well. It is in that space where He resides, with a love so strong it persists through the ages and will persist far beyond my own life. The hope is that I am able to share this love and pass it along. That is the prayer that accompanies this song whenever I hear it or play it.
