Dear St. Robert's parishioners and friends,

Words are so powerful. "When Elizabeth heard Mary's greeting, the baby in her womb leapt for joy."

A single word of "Hello or Hi" can create a multiple joy in the heart.

SPEAK in such a way that others LOVE to listen to us.

LISTEN in such a way that others love to speak to US.

Speak with LOVE and you will never regret what you say!

Be blessed and be a blessing,

Fr. Arnold

We congratulate the newly baptized!

Matteo Dougherty

May God hold you in the palm of his hand!

G.P.'s Music Corner

May 18, 2025
Fifth Sunday of Easter

Let's try an all-organ mass for a change, shall we?

To say that the organ and the church "go way back" is an understatement. The role of the organ in liturgy and indeed in the development of the identity of the church itself through the creation and use of sacred music is immense. There is a timeless beauty and quality to the sounds that emanate from its pipes. When thoughtfully chosen and prepared, music accompanied by the organ truly elevates the prayerful nature of our church hymns. I hope the selections for this weekend help you as you present your prayerful wishes to the Lord.

May is the month to honor Mother Mary. Fil-Am is hosting a "Flores de Mayo" celebration on Sunday, May 25, 2025. It will begin at 11:00 a.m. with a rosary procession at the front entrance of the church, through the parking lot, and into the church prior to the start of the 11:30 Mass. Parish organizations are invited to join and proudly display their banners. Children are encouraged to wear white to symbolize their innocence. Adults are encouraged to wear barongs or any festive attire. You are welcome to bring flowers to offer to our Blessed Mother.
