Dear St. Robert's parishioners and friends,

We are comforted not by changing the circumstances of our lives but by changing our attitude toward everything.

ACT! It means Attitude Changes Things. In one minute, you can change your attitude, and in that minute, you can change your entire day.

Be blessed and be a blessing,

Fr. Arnold

On Saturday, May 10, 2025, 47 of our young parishioners received the Sacrament of First Holy Communion! This marks a significant milestone in their faith journey, and we celebrate with them and their families. Please join us in congratulating these wonderful candidates for their commitment and growth in faith. May God bless each of them as they continue to deepen their relationship with Christ. Let us keep them in our prayers as they walk in the light of His love.

Our sincere sympathy to the families of Robert Marquez &
Fr. Tony McGuire
Who passed away recently.

We congratulate the newly baptized!

Sixth Sunday of Easter

What a Beautiful Name by Ben Fielding and Brooke Ligertwood is a contemporary song that I just absolutely enjoy playing/singing/listening to. Ever since its "debut" in our church at our Magnificat Advent Concert, many of our young singers have always looked forward to every opportunity to sing it. This Sunday, I hope you can indulge me as I especially devote my reflection to my little brother, Gianrene, who celebrates his 44th birthday today. We call him JR because his name is derived from the name of our dad, Renato. I haven't seen him in 10 years and he and I are the last of our family left.

Names are powerful. When the Lord says "I call you by name," He reminds us that his relationship with us is personal. It defies distance and time. And our love for each other is a reflection of His love for us. And our longing for each other is just as much a reflection of his longing for us. Who are the people you care for? Who are the people you miss? Who are the people you pray for? They are all agents of God's undying and endless love for us. Honor them as you honor our Lord.

Happy Birthday, JR.
